beer & wine menu

if you would like to bring your own wine in, we charge a modest $15 corkage

For many, harvest is a much anticipated time when we can begin to indulge in the fruits of our land and celebrate a successful and laborious growing season. At Alchemy we like doing so by raising a glass of fresh, vibrant Beaujolais Nouveau. Once again we offer our guests the newest release from Domaine Dupueble. Dupueble is a quality driven producer, committed to organic growing practices. This 'new' wine, fermented for only a few weeks, is the most innocent and delicate expression of the Gamay grape. Almost non-existent tannin levels allow for many exuberant and candy-like fruit characteristics.
